November 3 is Orphan Sunday—a time to call attention to the tremendous need for adoptive families in Kansas. Every child deserves a forever family. And you can help. Join us on Orphan Sunday by going to our website to access free resources.

On this day, community organizations and churches are making it their mission to help children find hope, love and permanency. Our goal is to involve every corner of Kansas in this important effort.

Orphan Sunday a time to focus on the need for more Foster and Adoptive Families in Kansas, especially for teens and sibling groups.

408,000 children are currently in foster care in the United States.

5,865 Kansas children are currently in foster care.

958 Kansas children in foster care are available for adoption.

People worldwide are rising up for the Orphans and you can join them.
