Finding Families for Kansas's & Missouri's Waiting Kids

FOCUS ON THE FAMILY[®]

Focus on the Family, in collaboration with the Kansas Department for Children and Families and the Missouri Children's Division, will host their first ever bi-state Wait No More event on Saturday, Nov. 1, in Kansas City, Mo.

Wait No More events bring families together to hear about adoption from foster care options in their communities and state. Guest speakers will be on hand to address the need for adoption and the impact it makes in the lives of children. At the event, organizations and service providers will offer information about the adoption process and how to begin the process of adopting a child/children from foster care.

Currently, there are nearly 400 foster children in Kansas and 1,400 in Missouri awaiting adoption. Wait No More works with government officials, adoption agencies, church leaders and ministry partners to raise awareness of the need for adoptive families.

WHEN: 10 a.m. to 2 p.m, Saturday, Nov. 1

WHERE: Colonial Presbyterian Church
