Have Questions? Here's Answers!

What are the basics?

- Child Care P-EBT benefits are for children under the age of 6, as of Aug. 1, 2022.
- Child Care P-EBT benefits will be issued automatically to eligible children.
- If an eligible child did not receive Child Care P-EBT by Aug. 24, 2023, families should call 1-888-369-4777 by Sept. 14, 2023.
- Funding and authorization for the benefit is made possible through the Continuing Appropriations Act, 2021 and Other Extensions.

Who is eligible to receive the benefit?

- Children under the age of 6 and receive Food Assistance/SNAP are eligible for Child Care P-EBT. They will not receive a Supplemental P-EBT benefit.

When will the benefit be issued?

- Benefits will be auto-issued based on the child's last name beginning Aug. 15, 2023. Families do not need to request the benefit.
- All benefits will be distributed by Aug. 24, 2023.

How much is the benefit per child?

- The benefit amount will vary. It is based on the months the child received food assistance benefits from Aug. 1, 2022 – May 11, 2023.

What about the children eligible for Child Care P-EBT benefits, but did not receive it by Aug. 24, 2023?

If this situation occurs, the parent/guardian may apply for Child Care P-EBT through the DCF Self Service Portal. The request must be made by Sept. 14, 2023.
